

Bijan (bee-jahn) n. 1. Malay for sesame 2. a modern restaurant that specializes in fine Malay cuisine

At Bijan, we are innovating new ways of enjoying Malay food; introducing accompanying wines to enhance flavours and new ways of preparing local delicacies in a fine balance of old and new. Our dishes are a mix of recipes handed down from generations & innovations of the real thing, to produce forgotten favourites and delicious new flavours and textures.

Malay cuisine is rustic, wholesome and reflective of the provincial cooking from which it originates. At Bijan, our menu comprises a fine selection of the best Malay cuisine has to offer. Kampung dishes like masak lemak ikan and kerabu pucuk paku to everyday favourites like rending daging, cucur udang and ikan masak asam pedas.

Bijan is the next best thing to home cooking. We always use quality ingredients such as prime Australian beef and D24 durians. Apart from trimming all excess fat, we also guarantee that all our dishes are halal & 100% msg free

B i j a n

- Best Malay Restaurant 2004 -
Tourism Malaysia